

I believe that joint ownership of newspapers and broadcast outlets should continue to be severely restricted or prohibited entirely. Sources of information in the United States are too limited right now.